GOOD NEWS!

Dear Concertgoer,

The response to my last email newsletter was quite overwhelming and I have been strongly encouraged to continue the series with the very limited funds available. Therefore we will be presenting a 15 year celebration concert on June 6th at Salle Church, at the earlier time of 6.30 pm. Agnes Langer will be the soloist. The main works will be by Bach. There will be some refreshments.

A one time donation of £20 minimum per adult is requested to help cover the costs of this concert. Tickets are available from Prelude Records ( at the very cheap cost of £10. Elders come at £7, as do youngsters aged 18 to 21. Other youngsters aged 8 to 18 come free.

I cannot predict my health, and I am genuinely in the last chance saloon, but without music I would be lost, and live classical music must continue in Norfolk, and particularly at Salle Church and Houghton Hall. Whatever happens this June 6th concert will happen, and is a must attend event.

Agnes began her own musical journey with me at Salle at age 13 and it is fitting that she should now choose to honour us with her music making and supreme violinist talent, using a magnificent Cremona violin lent to her by that wonderful patron of the arts, Norman Rosenberg.

We will try to present one more concert this year, dependent on the fund raising, and then again in 2016.

I do hope that you will want to help us continue our mission, and also will come to the special concert on June 6th at our spiritual home, SALLE CHURCH.

All Best Wishes,

Douglas Gowan
